We (parent and student) have been advised of the potential benefits, as well as the potential risks and consequences, of College Credit Plus. At this time, it is our intent to pursue this opportunity for the _____ school year.

1. We understand that the college process is the responsibility of the student and parent.
2. Failure to complete courses, whether through a formal "class drop" process or non-attendance, will result in any or all financial obligation for that course defaulting to the student and/or parent.

I acknowledge that I have been informed of the following details:

- Program Eligibility
- The process for granting academic credits
- Any necessary financial arrangements for tuition, textbooks, and fees
- Criteria for any transportation aid
- Available support services
- Scheduling
- Communicating the possible consequences and benefits of participation, including all of the following:
 - The consequences of failing or not completing a course under the program, including the effect on the student's ability to complete the secondary school's graduation requirements,
 - The effect of the grade attained in a course under the program being included in the student's grade point average, as applicable

- The benefits to the student for successfully completing a course under the program, including the ability to reduce the overall costs of, and the amount of time required for, a college education
- Information about the potential for mature subject matter, as defined in section 3365.035 of the Revised Code, in courses in which the student intends to enroll through the program and notification that courses will not be modified based upon program enrollee participation regardless of where the course instruction occurs. The information shall include the permission slip described (B) of section 3365.035 of the Revised Code (attached).
- Secondary schools must also provide information regarding the administrative rules of Course Eligibility and Underperforming Students.

_____ (initials) I verify I have read and reviewed the above information.

At this time, it is our intent to pursue this opportunity for the upcoming school year. Failure to complete the necessary steps prior to the end of the current school year may limit my ability to participate in the CCP Program.
